This game is genuinely fun lol. Its starting to get laggy tho when you are in the large map and in late game. Anyhoo, probably its my own PC that's causing the laggy issues, otherwise its a solid 8/10 from me. lol defo get it if you like 4x games.. If you love 4X strategy games this is a must than. Taking what made Civilization 5 great and focusing on china instead. The battles are as well nice to watch. DON'T EXPECT A TOTAL WAR. I've seen countless reviews hating the game just due to total war three kingdom and its just \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 that are both focusing on different elements. If you like 4X games get this.. m ai bine maninc un cacat. Great game, Re-skinned Civ5 with a few unique mechanics that make it easy to play and hard to master. A.I. is pretty solid too. (For A.I. that is.). I'm really disappointed that it doesn't have the total war style battles that it tries to make itself look like it does in the pictures. The game's decent but don't expect any total war style battles. It's the same as civ 6 battles, the difference is you can zoom in very close.
